About the Seminar: Since 1982, Wicklander-Zulawski & Associates, Inc. (WZ) has trained over 100,000 law enforcement professionals. The WZ Seminar on Criminal Interview & Interrogation ties the interpretation of verbal and physical behavior into a structured approach of interview and interrogation.

This course is unique in that it provides training in multiple techniques of interview and interrogation, including the WZ Non-Confrontational Method, Behavioral Interviews and the Reid Method* The WZ Non-Confrontational Method is a structured, conversational approach that often results in an admission (or multiple admissions) without the suspect ever making a denial or protesting their innocence. Moreover, the resulting legally-acceptable confession often includes information not revealed during the investigation.

Seminar Topics Include:

- WZ Non-Confrontational Method
- Behavioral Analysis Interview
- The Reid Method*
- Development of the Admission
- Interpretation of Verbal & Physical Behavior
- Room Setting & Preparation
- Legal Aspects
- Theme Development
- Handling Explanatory Denials
- Enticement Questions

Bottom Line: There is more than one way to interrogate a suspect. If a person is trained in multiple methods, they have the ability to use the technique most appropriate for the type of case and individual they are interviewing.
