U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Immigrant Victims of Human Trafficking and other Crimes

A training for federal, state and local law enforcement agencies.

Date: September 18, 2014
Time: 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM
Place: 12500 Tukwila International Blvd.
Seattle, WA 98168

Open to federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies that work with immigrant victims:

- FBI
- Immigration and Customs Enforcement
- DEA
- Department of Justice
- State and Local Police Departments
- U.S. Attorneys
- District Attorneys
- Victim / Witness Coordinators

Immigrant victims of trafficking, domestic abuse or other crimes may be eligible for visas enabling them to stay in the United States.

To qualify for a T-visa or U-visa an immigrant victim may be required to:

- Assist authorities in the investigation or prosecution of the case
- Submit a form signed and certified by a qualified authority

This informational session will include:

- Overview of the types of immigration relief for victims of human trafficking and other crimes
- Roles and responsibilities of agencies
- Instructions on certifying forms
- Q & A session

If you are interested in participating, please RSVP to Christine Pool at Christine.A.Pool@uscis.dhs.gov by September 11, 2014