ADVANCED VEHICLE BASED COMBATIVES

Tactical Officer and Military applications focus

This two day class will result in a greater understanding of how to fight in and around vehicles in a kinetic format in light and low light. It will challenge your preconceptions and skillset wherever your experience level lies. The class is specifically designed to develop a skillset that you can take back to your Department or Agency to promote. Matt Graham teaches Operators at the very tip of the Spear as a full time Defense Contractor. His expertise in Vehicle fighting dynamics is the result of many years teaching our Nation's finest warriors.

Sponsored by Douglas County Sheriff's Office East Wenatchee, WA

March 14-15th 2016 Hours 0800-2000

This class is Restricted to Law Enforcement, Military or US Govt Contractors

Instructor: Matt Graham

MATT GRAHAM Brief biography:

Matt currently serves as a defense contractor functioning as a full-time firearms and tactics instructor of protective and low profile operations. As a former federal air marshal, Matt operated covertly throughout the world, running low profile counter-terrorism missions. Prior to 9/11 Matt worked patrol as a police officer, both municipally and as a county deputy, and is a recipient of the Life Saving Medal, the Medal of Valor, and the Law Enforcement Medal of Honor. Graham Combat training courses, all created from Matt's experiences and taught from a concealed carry profile, are a blend of these operational backgrounds. Matt has designed core

Curriculum for defensive shooters focusing on fighting with what you carry, shooting fast, and hitting first.

In addition Matt is an instructor at Mid-South Institute of Self Defense, the Defensive Tactics editor of COMBAT TACTICS magazine, a frequent contributor to Guns & Weapons for Law Enforcement and Special Weapons for Military & Police, and a FOX NEWS terrorism & military analyst. Matt is an active member of multiple journalism, law enforcement, and Military professional firearms, tactics, and medical association. Matt Graham is a certified WSCJTC Firearms Advanced Tactics Instructor and First Level Supervisor
