

*You Never Know When It Might Happen.
Be Prepared For When It Happens To You.*

Performance Leadership Institute, Inc.
Presents:

SUICIDE BY COP

An Advanced CIT Course for law enforcement professionals

“Suicide by Cop” is one of those unpredictable calls that you never know when it will happen. This course is designed to prepare you for how to best respond if it happens to you. We’ll discuss the nature of suicide, some facts about most suicide by cop incidents, and review some past incidents to allow you to think through options, tactics, safety of yourself and others in the surrounding area, and how you can formulate a response that has the best chance for a positive outcome.

Attend this course and you will learn:

- The nature of suicide and typical signs and symptoms
- De-escalation strategies and techniques
- How to prepare yourself for this situation
- Options and tactics for approaching a call you believe to be a “suicide by cop” incident
- Analysis of other calls - what went well, what could you have approached differently
- Scenarios designed to put you “in the moment” to practice your response

4 Elective
Training Hours

This program is designed for line officers and supervisors who work patrol and or supervise line positions. Through direct presentation, candid discussions, relevant case study and informative scenario exercises, this course gives you background on “suicide by cop” as well as the opportunity to explore different approaches and options to better prepare you for when you may be thrust into this situation. This course is will be taught by Sgt. JR Hall of the King County Sheriff’s Office, who is a thought provoking instructor with a wealth of experience in law enforcement - including his own “suicide by cop” incidents. JR keeps his classes lively, open and engaging. You are sure to take away many practical tools and a new perspective on approaching these types of situations with better options, tactics and leadership.
