

Training Announcement

The United States Attorney's Offices in the Eastern District of Washington and the Wenatchee Police Department are pleased to co-sponsor the Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events (CRASE), Train the Trainer Course.

This training is funded by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance and presented by the Advanced Law Enforcement Rapid Response Training (ALERRT), Texas State University San Marcos.

Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events - Train-the-Trainer

July 21, 2016 0830-1230 hours

Confluence Technology Center (CTC), 285 Technology Center Way, Wenatchee, WA 98801

Course Description: Law enforcement officers and agencies are frequently requested by schools, businesses, and community members for direction and presentations on what they should do if confronted with an active shooter event. The Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events (CRASE) course, designed and built on the Avoid, Deny, Defend strategy developed by ALERRT in 2004, provides strategies, guidance and a proven plan for surviving an active shooter event. Topics include the history and prevalence of active shooter events, the role of professional guardians, civilian response options, medical issues, and drills. Participants in this four hour Train-the-Trainer course will receive a manual and Power Point presentation suitable for use in their own presentations.

Course Length: 0.5 day/4 hours

Required Equipment: Good attitude, open mind, pen and paper.

Cost: Course is funded by the DOJ/BJA and offered tuition free. Agencies are responsible for travel and time of their personnel.

Prerequisites: Commissioned Law Enforcement Officer - City, County, State, Tribal and Federal.

Registration: To register, please click on the follow link and complete the application form.

<https://usaowaetraining.org/EBForms.aspx?EBID=306>

Point of Contact: Steven Tomson, LECC, US Attorney's Office, steven.tomson@usdoj.gov, CELL 509-710-5894