

Washington State University Police Department is seeking highly motivated, career and community oriented candidates to fill current and anticipated vacancies to become a part of our team of campus law enforcement officers.

Campus Police Officer: Full-Time, 12-Month, Bargaining Unit position. Provide for the safety and security of persons and property at events and attend community meetings. To provide preventive police patrol of the campus and nearby areas, enforcing state laws, city ordinances, and university regulations within a diverse educational environment. Conduct criminal and traffic investigations, make arrests, prepare necessary documentation and testify in court. Some of the potential specialty assignments are SWAT, Traffic, FTO, COP, Computer Crimes, and Bicycle Patrol.

Minimum Qualifications: High school graduation or equivalent; twenty-one years of age; possession of a valid driver's license; no previous felony convictions; U.S Citizenship; AND Two years of full-time college; OR One year of police experience. Equivalent education/experience will substitute for all minimum qualifications except when there are legal requirements, such as a license/certification/registration. Must obtain and maintain certification or complete a basic law enforcement course as approved by the Washington Law Enforcement Officer's Training Commission. Must successfully pass a criminal background check. Must be able to pass an Emergency Vehicle Operation Course (EVOC).

Preferred Qualifications: Commissioned law officer under the regulations of the State of Washington. Strong interpersonal skills in order to interact with the public, other agencies, and co-workers in a positive manner.

Starting Salary: $3679 per month

Apply online at: www.wsujobs.com . Applications received before November 4, 2013 will be given first considered for the next phase of the process. This process includes oral interview, physical agility test, written examination, interview/oral board evaluation, verification of academic credentials, licenses, certifications, and/or verification of work history, criminal records and consumer credit checks, background investigation, polygraph test, psychological exam, physical exam and drug screening. WSU utilizes an online system for recruitment which will require a valid email address at the time of application. This recruitment will remain open until filled and may be used for future vacancies.

The Department: The WSU Police Department on the Pullman Campus has a staff of 17 commissioned officers, three records/evidence specialists and two support staff. The Police Department is responsible for providing public safety and security for the students, faculty, staff, and visitors on the Pullman campus of Washington State University. The university's web page <http://www.wsu.edu> offers information about WSU and the surrounding area.

Washington State University is a world-class, research and land-grant University located in Pullman, Washington, and is a member of the PAC-12.

Community: Pullman was recently designated a "dream town" by Demographics Daily, reflecting the city's exceptionally high quality of life. The public school system was named one of the top 100 in the U.S. National Geographic has dubbed this region "A Paradise Called the Palouse." To learn more about the Pullman community, visit: www.around.wsu.edu .

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EDUCATOR AND EMPLOYER. Members of ethnic minorities, women, special disabled veterans, veterans of the Vietnam-era, recently separated veterans, and other protected veterans, persons of disability and/or persons age 40 and over are encouraged to apply. Washington State University is an AA/EOE.