DESCRIPTION:

The Rural Operations Training Program (ROTP) is a five (5) day program, designed to provide the Law Enforcement Officer with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively operate in rural environments while applying tactics in a multitude of incidents as well as tactically transitioning between evolving or changing problems. This course was designed for the realities of utilizing tactics in rural incidents from a patrol or team response to active shooter situations, barricaded subjects, warrant service, marijuana cultivation, rural surveillance and fugitive. These incidents are not inclusive of all tactical considerations, however the tactics can be used to handle most incidents. Specifically, the course highlights operational planning, map orientation, individual and team movement, movement to contact, immediate action drills, ambush/counter-ambush, officer rescue, insertion and extraction, tactical tracking and arrest techniques. The officer will demonstrate through reality-based training drills, scenarios and practical exercises their knowledge and proficiency in rural operations.

Attendees are required to bring their own duty weapons (primary and secondary), day pack, tac vest or other duty equipment, duty attire (long sleeve, pants, boots, rain and cold weather gear), compass, first aid kit, hydration system, flashlight, binoculars or equivalent and note-taking material. NLTA (Non-Lethal Training Ammunition) protective equipment will be provided as well as 200 rounds of NLTA per attendee.
