

Comments from previous attendees:

Mr. Euliss' passion for leadership and his care and concern for those who wear the badge was greatly appreciated. I along with my peers agreed that his course was the best we've ever attended. This course is a must have for any officer at any level, particularly those with the intentions of leading and/or attaining a supervisory role. Outstanding through and through!

S.G. - Rio Rancho, NM

"It's the first and best leadership course I've attended in 20 years in law enforcement - it should be a prerequisite course for any command positions in my or any department."

J. B. - Fort Wayne, IN

"This class was very beneficial. When the instructor explains the information so well that I can see myself, I know I am getting something out of the class. This class will help me be a better leader to my officers. It taught me to understand them in a way that will assist me in motivating them to accomplish more in their jobs and careers."

M.B. - Allen, TX

"This was a very good class. Think of your department while the class is on going. If you work for a department with moral or leadership issues you will see why and how to correct the problems."

S.S. - Warren, MI

"This course is a must for anyone in law enforcement. From the highest brass down to the new rookie."

B.R. - Bentonville, AR

"This course was outstanding! The information presented is vital for anyone in a position of leadership. If you want to understand those who work for you and see things from different perspectives you need to master the principals that this course teaches."

T.R. - Texarkana, AR

First Line Supervision: “Mastering Leadership Skills”

About This Course

All of us are familiar with the term, Minimum Standards. We use minimum standards for everything from firearms to understanding constitutional law. However, many of us use minimum standards as a destination while we should be using it as a starting line. How do we change this mentality? LEADERSHIP. This class is all about providing you the tools you need to become the best leader you can be. Doing that comes with the understanding that great leadership is the result of a lifetime of learning and experience combined with a commitment to help others do the same. If you are looking to improve the performance, relationships, and morale of your department, this class is for you.

Course Objectives

At the conclusion of this class participant will:

- Understand the character of a true leader.
- Understand the Paradigm Effect, Paradigm Paralysis, and its impact on your ability to effectively lead.
- Understand the importance of having, celebrating and sustaining a belief system
- Understand the difference between management and leadership and how they impact different areas
- Understand how to apply the Leadership Test©
- Understand how to use and apply the DiSC® profile ad it applies to supervision
- Understand the myth surrounding the “Perfect Leader”
