

Documenting the Use of Force

July 25 & 26, 2012 • Spokane County, WA

Comprehensive training for the most scrutinized report. Learn how to protect yourself and your career by maximizing:

- Event recall strategies
- Critical item identification
- Note collection & organization
- Supporting details & elaboration
- Remembering & recording dialogue

Lesson plans are strategically designed to enhance individual learning. They are also 'handy' on-duty job aids and valuable career resources.

"FORCE Concepts' training is second to none. Their lesson materials are relevant and convenient. I have used my Documenting Force guide several times. It stays in my patrol car." — Officer D.G. DeCotis, Cary, NC Police Department
