

Law Enforcement Torch Run Campaign Kick-Off Conference and Awards Banquet October 22, 2012

The Law Enforcement Torch Run Kick-Off and Awards Luncheon is a one-day conference that brings together more than 200 law enforcement volunteers throughout the state where they attend concurrent sessions on how to fundraise, organize a Torch Run and work with individuals with intellectual disabilities. It is also an opportunity to engage new volunteers and agencies who wish to learn different ways to get involved.

Concurrent sessions will take place throughout the day and will include courses on how to fundraise, maximize PR/Media and various courses for both the newcomer and experienced volunteer. Law enforcement certification classes will also be available throughout the day. Get your credits and support Special Olympics Washington – it's a win-win for everyone!

Awards Luncheon to include a special presentation from new LETR Chairman - U.S. Congressman, Dave Reichert, special awards ceremony for individuals and agencies for their contribution to the athletes of Special Olympics Washington; and keynote speaker: Dustin Plunkett, Special Olympics Southern California athlete. Come hear his amazing story on "How Special Olympics Saved My Life."

Registration is free including hotel accommodations! Yes, FREE!
