

PLEASE POST 2013 SEMINAR

STREET SURVIVAL

Burien, Washington on January 14th & 15th, 2013

Hosted by: Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission

Location: 19010 1st Ave. South

Burien, WA 98148

Time: 8am – 5pm Hotel Info: lifelinetraining.com

Calibre Press “Street Survival” Presented by LifeLine

LifeLine Training is proud to announce the acquisition of Calibre Press and the Street Survival seminar! Lt. Jim Glennon, former Director of Curriculum for Calibre Press and the owner of LifeLine, is thrilled to have the Street Survival seminar once again focused on its core mission: keeping officers safe. Lt. Glennon, along with some of the country’s most recognized instructors, present a highly energetic and impactful experience meant to develop smarter, safer, more successful LE Professionals.

Some of the topics include:

“THE FATAL FOUR”

Examine the most common causes of law enforcement fatalities

- 1. Felonious Assaults
- 2. Vehicle/Traffic Related Incidents
- 3. Physical Conditioning
- 4. Emotional Health

“Ultimate Street Survival”

Developing the Skills and Knowledge that will keep you safe and successful

- The 5%er Mindset
- When/Then Thinking
- Maintaining your Tactical Edge
- Learning not Just to Survive, but to WIN
- Understanding our Survival Instincts

REGISTRATION ONLINE @ calibrepress.com or to be invoiced
please e-mail names and ranks to streetsurvival2013@gmail.com

You can also call Steve Hirst at 847-833-5163

COURSE FEE: $199 PER PERSON NEW PRICE!

Group of 3 more at $179 per person

To be removed from this fax list please email steve.hirst@lifelinetraining.com