

Domestic Violence: Best Practices for Law Enforcement Responding to Perpetrators

By Lundy Bancroft

Join us for this FREE one day training at the

Walla Walla Police Department
54 E. Moore Street, Walla Walla, WA

Tuesday, November 27th, 2012 2:00 pm to 10:00 pm

OR

Wednesday, November 28th, 2012 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

(Includes dinner on the 27th & lunch on the 28th)

Topics include:

- Improving police and prosecution response to domestic abusers;
- Improving the court and probation response to domestic violence;
- The profile and tactics of men who abuse;
- Understanding the effects of substance abuse and it's relationship to battering;
- Overlap between domestic violence perpetration and sexual abuse of children;
- Wounds suffered by children growing up in abusive homes;
- Accountability, intervention, and change for men who abuse.

To register: Contact Chalese Rabidue, MSW, DV Coordinator, WWPD, at 509-524-4400 or email at crabidue@ci.walla-walla.wa.us A block of hotel rooms has been reserved at The Marcus Whitman Hotel, 6 West Rose, 866-826-9422, $77 single/$87 double Best Western Walla Walla Suites, 7 East Oak, 509-525-4700, $77 single/$89 double

Full complimentary breakfast at both hotels!

Lundy Bancroft has spent the last twenty years of his career specializing in domestic abuse and the behavior of abusive men. During that time, Lundy was co-director of Emerge, the nation's first counseling program for men who batter. He has specialized in interventions for abusive men and their families. He is considered one of the world's experts on the subject.