

I-502 questions? Blood draw concerns? Search warrant confusion?

WASHINGTON DUI UPDATE

Two Dates: January 17 & 18, 2013

TRAINING TOPICS COVERED

- ✓ DUI legal update and what I-502 means for DUI enforcement
- ✓ Standardized Field Sobriety Testing
- ✓ Overview of the Drug Recognition Expert program
- ✓ When to draw blood instead of breath
- ✓ Blood search warrants

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- ✓ Patrol officers
- ✓ Command staff
- ✓ Prosecutors
- ✓ Judges

Instructors

Courtney Popp, Washington Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor

Miriam Norman, Jefferson County Prosecutor's Office

Swift Sanchez, Suquamish Police Department

Luke Bagues, Port Townsend Police Department

TWO DAYS TO CHOOSE FROM FOR THIS FREE TRAINING:

Thursday, January 17, 2013

Port Townsend Police Department
1925 Blaine Street
Port Townsend WA 98368

Friday, January 18, 2013

Port Angeles Fire Department
102 E. Fifth Street
Port Angeles, WA 98362

8 a.m. – Noon: SFST Refresher

A Standardized Field Sobriety Testing update. Required by Washington Traffic Safety Commission every three years for patrol officers, and a helpful overview for prosecutors and judges.

1 – 6 p.m.: Legal Update and Search Warrants

How to utilize a Drug Recognition Expert, when should officers draw blood, and blood search warrants.

Register online at www.duienforcers.camp7.org

Questions or unable to register online? Call Officer Luke Bagues at 360-531-2836.