

Student Substance Abuse: Deterrence and Steps to Detection

Presented by Officer Mike Graddon

Tuesday, February 26, 2013

8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

ESD 123 Blue Mountain Room

3918 W. Court St. ■ Pasco, WA 99301

Training Description:

Trying to determine if a student is under the influence can be a challenge. This comprehensive one-day course is intended to guide anyone working in an educational setting through a systematic approach, to deter and detect substance abuse.

Designed for teachers, professors, administrators, coaches, counselors, intervention specialists, support staff, nurses, security, school resource officers, or any personnel responsible for intervening when a student is suspected of alcohol or drug use. Discover what to do when a student is suspected of being under the influence. Learn what to look for and where. Easy-to-use strategies will be explored, along with helpful ways of identifying a potential drug user.

You will walk out of this training with the tools necessary to immediately take on the next alcohol or drug incident that comes your way.

Target Audience:

School administrators, counselors, teachers, mental health professionals, and school nurses.

- Min. 12 / Max. 24 participants
- Snacks provided (lunch on your own)
- 8 clock hours available for $14

Registration:

Cost is $75.
