

Date: November 9, 2010

Time: 8am to 6pm

Domestic Violence: A Coordinated Community Response

Who should attend: Law Enforcement (patrol and detectives), Prosecutors, Probation Officers, and Victim Advocates.

The Snohomish County Domestic Violence Coalition, in cooperation with the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office, invites you to participate in an 8-hour training on domestic violence. Local experts will present topics on; prosecuting DV related crimes with an uncooperative victim, evidence collection, cyber stalking and Officer Safety Issues.

LOCATION:

Snohomish County Roads Maintenance
Training Facility
8915 Cathcart Way
Snohomish, WA 98296
(MAPS AVAILABLE)

Register at:

Larry.Cole@Snoco.org
OR
Call Detective Larry Cole
425-508-4833

This training is FREE, thanks to the STOP Grant and is being organized by the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office, working in cooperation with the Snohomish County Domestic Violence Coalition.

