Course Content:

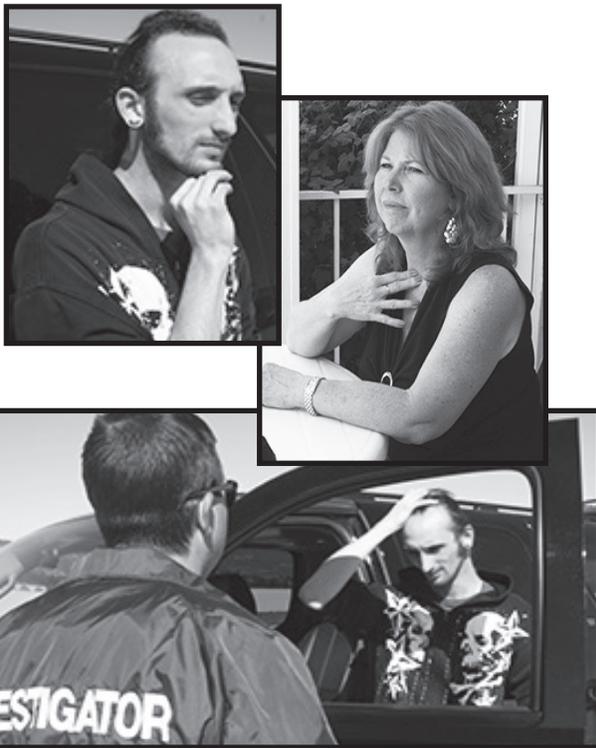

This course targets the basics of deception, body language and statements analysis. It also strives to give seasoned personnel some refresher training and balance between advanced tactics, getting back to the basics and bad habits developed over time during our career. Components include:

- *Analyzing statements during discussions or interviews.
- *Body language of deceptive people.
- *Integrating silence & advanced skills
- *Verbal and non-verbal cues that people are lying.
- *Communication structure of the liar
- *Bridging the gap & the dynamics of authority
- *Facts to focus on to discover the truth
- *Questions to ask to get to the truth.

Instructor:

Course instructor is Captain Joe Puckett, a 21 year veteran of law enforcement, former administrator, investigator and negotiator with extreme interest in human nature, human actions & human reactions in the interview environments. He also enjoys focusing on the concepts of silence, authority and efficiency in getting to the truth. Since 1991, he has instructed to thousands of people in many levels of public safety, criminal justice, government and even the corporate sector.

Mr. Puckett will share his experiences as a front line patrol investigator dealing with street crimes, high profile crimes, as well as his experience dealing with employee interviews and human resources issues. His instruction has been rated high in this course from a wide variety of audiences.
