About The Class

This course is designed to provide students with investigative techniques, knowledge, and understanding to respond effectively to the unique challenges encountered in child abuse cases. This course is GRAPHIC and involves topics that involve children being physically abused. Focus will be on recognizing when a child's injury or illness is caused by abuse. There will be numerous photographs and discussion on a variety of child abuse injuries. This includes burns, shaken baby and understanding the crime scene. There will also be interview techniques discussed and a variety of cases discussed. During the second day of class child deaths will be reviewed and evidence discussed, several actual burn cases and murder child abuse shaken baby cases will be reviewed. In addition Battered Child cases will be presented and discussed. State-of-the-art techniques will be discussed to include medical terms, and suspect interviews. Students will receive a child abuse interview packet to use on cases. The students will receive training and a certificate upon completion of this program.

This course is designed for law enforcement officers, first responders and detectives. The course is an in depth look at child physical abuse and understanding how to complete a case from beginning to end. After students finish this course they will be provided a thumb drive with all class material, interview forms and will be enrolled in several child abuse organizations.

About the Speaker

Sergeant Jerry Barker has been a law enforcement officer since July 1988 and is currently a sergeant with the Phoenix Police Department. He has worked crimes against children for 10 years as a detective before being promoted and specializes in physical / fatal child abuse, shaken baby syndrome, child sexual abuse and sexual exploitation of a minor (images and movies depicting the sexual abuse of children). Sgt. Barker has specialized training in child death investigations, child sexual abuse, crime scenes involving shaken baby, computer forensics, specialized suspect interview and interrogation of offenders who abuse children, and mental health for detectives that investigate crimes against children. He is currently the Arizona Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force Commander. Sgt. Barker instructs at the Arizona Law Enforcement Academy, Northern Arizona Regional Training Academy and various other teaching assignments around the country.
