Public Records Act Compliance for Law Enforcement

Ramsey Ramerman, Attorney, City of Everett

Thursday, June 20th, 2013

8:00 am – 5:00 pm

This full day of training is designed for those handling Law Enforcement records. It will cover the Public Records Act, compliance, disclosure and a special focus on exemptions that arise in the law enforcement context. The training is built around the review of an actual murder investigation file, but will also address issues related to HR records, third party records, and attorney-client privilege and work product.

- Overview of the PRA
- Withholding Records To Benefit the Public: An Analysis of the 5 Public Benefits of Secrecy
- Law Enforcement Records Part One: Protecting the Investigative Process (Includes Attorney - Client Privilege)
- Law Enforcement Records Part Two: Public Safety
- Law Enforcement Records Part Three: Privacy (Includes personnel records)
