

Computer Technology Investigators Network
Digital Forensics Conference

Burien, WA

March 24-26, 2014

www.ctinconference.org

Speakers include experts and published authors in the field of digital forensics and cybersecurity.

Topics include: Mobile Forensics, Cell Towers, Observation Skills, Mac Forensics, eDiscovery, Ethics, eEvidence and Case Law, Incident Response, Log Analysis, Data Recovery, and more.

Tuition:

$350 for 3 days of training and education in digital forensics

Includes food and drink

First come, first served

CTIN has been providing high tech crime fighting training since 1996 in the areas of high-tech security, investigation, and prosecution of high-tech crimes for both private and public sector security and investigative personnel and prosecutors. CTIN is a 501(c) non-profit association.