

Introduction to Deceptive Behavior

Register online at: www.wrctc.org

Point of Contact: SSG Joe Dillon (253) 512-8355

This course is a basic introduction to human behavior and its relationship with deception. Through an introspective analysis of emotion, it is intended to enable Law Enforcement personnel to apply psychological principles and develop intelligence leads while in contact with human sources. Concepts based on accepted scientific research are presented as a tool that enhances understanding of deceptive behavior to support counter narcotics investigations.

This is a 2-day (16 hour) class.

Upcoming Training:

19-20 May 2014 - Vancouver, WA

28-29 May 2014 - Kennewick, WA

Visit our website: www.wrctc.org and click the “Course Schedules” tab to select your course. Registration is FREE, and only available to Law Enforcement personnel.