Presents

Negotiations With The Terrorist Mindset

24 hours / Three days
POST Certified: Plan IV

- DATE & TIME: June 9-11, 2014 / 0800-1700 Hrs
- LOCATION: Pierce County Sheriff's Department (Host agency)
South Hill Precinct
271 John Bananola Wy E / Puyallup, WA 98374
- DESCRIPTION: This course is presented entirely from the practitioner's perspective through interactive discussion, practical exercises and specific case studies of known terrorist-like events. A thorough examination is conducted of real challenges negotiators are likely to face when responding to terrorist-like critical incidents. Experienced instructors have extensive background and experiences in relevant disciplines including terrorism, radicalized inmate population, intercultural communications, crisis negotiations and critical incident management.
- This unique training is designed to build and enhance specific skill sets of crisis negotiators preparing them to respond to events in which suspects possess the mindset of the terrorist. A thorough examination of terrorism is provided with a goal of enhancing the students' knowledge of terrorism-like criminal behaviors. Potential terrorism scenarios and case studies are examined and rapid incident assessment is discussed.
- TOPICS: Recognition of incident typology possibilities / Traditional LE response to critical incidents / Rapid incident assessment methodology tool kit / Crisis negotiator skill building / Communications with incident command / Tactical operations for negotiators / Potential terrorism-like scenarios involving negotiations / Open source research and intelligence gathering / Inter-cultural communications / National, state, local terrorism threat briefs / Case studies / Table top scenario exercises.
- TARGET AUDIENCE: This training is open to all law enforcement; however, current members of a crisis negotiation team will be given priority.
- REGISTRATION: Go to <http://piercecountrysurveyshare.com/t/Negotiations-with-the-Terrorist-Mindset>
Register early – seating is limited! Out-of-County partners may register at any time and will be waitlisted until about one week prior to class.
