

PERCEPTIONS OF JUSTICE

Join us for a discussion of a report by the researchers who studied Washington's public perception of how its people feel they are treated by police and by the courts.

WHEN

June 9, 2014 | 8:45 a.m.-12 p.m.
Registration opens at 8:30 a.m.

WHERE

OB2 Auditorium DSHS, 1115 Washington Street SE, Olympia, WA

ABOUT THE EVENT

Prosecutors, police representatives, judges, defense counsel, and representatives of community organizations will be present for this discussion.

There will be an opportunity to ask questions during the presentations and for informal conversations during the lunch hour.

SPEAKERS

Mark Peffley, John Hurwitz, and Jeffery Mondak, Researchers for "Justice in Washington" Report

SPONSORED BY

The Washington State Minority and Justice Commission

Registration

No Cost to Register ~ Lunch provided.
Advance registration is recommended.

Register by emailing:

cynthia.delostrinos@courts.wa.gov with "Perceptions of Justice" in the subject line.

*2.75 general CLE credits approved.

QUESTIONS?

Email:

cynthia.delostrinos@courts.wa.gov

Phone 360-705-5327