

2014 – FALL CLASS

ILLEGAL INTERNET GAMBLING & CYBERCRIME INVESTIGATIONS COURSE

On September 8-12, 2014, the Washington State Gambling Commission will be teaching a 36 hour, Illegal Internet Gambling and Cybercrime Investigations Class Developed/written by: Rick Herrington, SAC, WSGC and Jim Dibble SA WSGC. The class will be held at the Criminal Justice Training Center in the Cascade Building on the second floor, room C-204.

This training is free for all law enforcement organizations. Attendees are responsible for transportation, food and lodging.

Address: WA State Criminal Justice Training Center
Room C-204, Cascade Building
19010 1st Avenue South
Burien, Washington 98148
Phone: 206-835-7300

List of Presenters:

Richard L. Herrington
Special Agent In-Charge
Washington State Gambling Commission
Criminal Intelligence Unit
Olympia, WA
Phone: (360) 486-3590
Email: rick.herrington@wsgc.wa.gov

Jim Dibble, CFCE, SCERS, CFE
Special Agent
Washington State Gambling Commission
Criminal Intelligence Unit
Spokane, WA
Phone: (509) 325-7907
Email: jim.dibble@wsgc.wa.gov

COURSE SYNOPSIS/PURPOSE:

The class is an introduction to illegal internet gambling investigations giving the student the basis of knowledge and the technological knowledge to investigate criminal violations occurring over the internet. This will include a general overview, laws pertaining to these types of investigations, financial and business background, open sources, documentation and evidence. Technological training will provide the students with the basic tools and knowledge to investigate online cybercrime from internet mining, use of tools to identify the location and associated entities, online investigation media capture.

Please email me to confirm your attendance as soon as possible:

Rick Herrington, SA In-Charge
Email: rick.herrington@wsgc.wa.gov
Phone: (360) 486-3590