Please Note: Due to a high demand, this one day training has been extended to two separate days. Please register for EITHER the 16th, OR the 17th. Due to the interactive nature of this training, attendance is capped at 30 attendees per day.

AZNAFTO is proud to offer back to back days of outstanding training for Field Training Officers looking to sharpen their skills, current FTO's that haven't trained recently, or previous FTO's preparing to re-enter the field. This training is designed to apply to Field Training Officers and Field Trainers working in Patrol, Detention, Communications, and EMT/Paramedics.

FTO Refresher Course

This 9 hour class covers such topics as Generational Leadership, Standard Evaluation Guidelines, Adult Learning, Motivation and Inspiration, and Career Survival. Each block of study is directed at the Field Training Officer and FTO Administrator, and ways to improve their teaching, work product, and approach to today's Officer In Training. Information includes motivating different generations of trainees, the importance of socialization, career survival for the FTO, and case law review pertaining to evaluations.

Instructors:

Graham Tinius has been a Field Training Officer with the Chandler Police Department since 2007. Graham is the recipient of a Meritorious Service Award, as well as a Unit Citation Award for his work in redesigning the Field Training Program and its implementation within the department. Since receiving his General Instructor Certification from AZPOST in 2006, Graham has taught numerous classes to law enforcement including Cultural Diversity, Adult Learning, Generational Leadership, Ethics, Officer Safety, and FTO Schools. Graham has taught FTO schools for local, county, tribal, and state law enforcement across the American Southwest, as well as US Army civilian police, civilian police and sheriff staff, and supervisors. Graham obtained his Master Field Training Officer certification from NAFTO in 2013 and is a Franklin Covey 'The Nobility of Policing' Instructor. Graham has been the Arizona Chapter NAFTO President since 2012.

Daniel Greene is a Sergeant with the Chandler Police Department. In 1998 he was selected as a Field Training Officer. In November of 2006 Dan promoted to Sergeant and remained in Patrol. In January of 2008 Dan was selected to inherit the Field Training Unit once more, this time as its supervisor. Dan is currently a certified General Instructor, Defensive Tactics Instructor, Field Training Officer and AZPOST Leadership Instructor. Dan has also had extensive training in the fields of Leadership and Ethics through institutions such as AZPOST, National Institute of Ethics, Jack Enter's Proactive Leadership Strategies, Franklin/Covey Seven Habits of Highly Effective People and Franklin/Covey The Nobility of Policing.

The fee is $100.00 per attendee. A Registration Form is attached to this flyer and can be sent to Officer Graham Tinius at the address below. Questions can be e-mailed to AZNAFTO@Gmail.com. You must have the attending officer's name and badge number to register for the class. Payment is due at time of registration. Credit Cards are accepted, please email for an invoice.
