Re: Officer Involved Lethal Force Investigations

THE BRIER POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS:

OFFICER INVOLVED LETHAL FORCE INVESTIGATIONS

November 3 & 4, 2014
Brier, Washington

There is no single event that can inflict trauma onto a police department more than an officer involved lethal force incident. The negative attention generated by the media, community activists and the general public can be tremendous. Civil judgments resulting from such cases can cripple a city and police department for years, having a negative effect on employee morale and erode public support for the city and department. It is essential that the criminal investigator, supervisor and command personnel assigned to conduct and provide oversight to an officer involved shooting incident become equally prepared.

This 16 hour course provides an in-depth examination of lethal force incidents from the initial response to the final judgment. This course is taught by Mr. Clint Greenwood. Mr. Greenwood is an attorney, who was formally in private practice representing peace officers in criminal matters, a former prosecutor over the Police Integrity Division and is currently a Commander in a large Sheriff's Office.
