

Hosted By The Kirkland Police Department

Supervisor's Role in Managing the Use of Force Incident

Based on the comprehensive liability management treatise:
MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT
For Criminal Justice Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators

Date: January 7, 2015
Location: Kirkland Police Department
11750 NE 118th St
Kirkland, WA
Hours: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Tuition: $125.00

MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT can be purchased at Amazon.com and Charles C. Thomas Publishing

What This Informative Seminar Offers

An improperly managed use of force incident can cost your department millions of dollars and cause long term damage to the department's public image and reputation. This informative seminar provides criminal justice supervisors with the information necessary to effectively manage the use of force incident and prevent department liability. The following are examples of what this dynamic presentation will cover:

- Current Supreme Court rulings on deadly force
- Recent appellate court Taser rulings
- Causes of officer and department liability
- Actions that damage an officer's credibility
- Proper use of force evidence collection
- Forensic Taser evidence that is critical to an officer's defense
- Proactive approach to managing department and officer liability
- Creating court defensible training records
- Creating defensible use of force policies
- Guidelines for managing witness' perceptions at the scene of a force incident
- Reducing panic-induced excessive force by officers
- Properly documenting the use of force incident
- Supervisor's role in minimizing citizen complaints at the scene
- Coaching officers to prevent excessive force litigation
- Conducting excessive force and misconduct investigations
- Conducting a post-incident use of force team debriefing
- First-line supervisor's role in use of force training and evaluation
- Supervisor's role in preventing department liability

Your Instructor

Howard Webb is the author of the comprehensive liability management treatise MANAGING THE USE OF INCIDENT for Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators. Howard is the former use of force expert for the State of Oregon and Montana. He is a nationally recognized criminal justice liability management expert and expert witness. As an expert on criminal justice liability and use of force, Howard has reviewed over a thousand use of force incidents and testified in defense of criminal justice officers over 300 times in state and federal courts and labor relations hearings. He is a contributing author who writes on use of force issues for POLICE magazine.

The American Council on Criminal Justice Training is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides criminal justice training seminars and instructor development courses.

Register On-line: www.accjt.org

American Council on Criminal Justice Training
PO Box 7053 Helena, Montana 59604 (406) 241-6150

Who Should Attend:

Law Enforcement, Corrections, Parole and Probation, and Public Safety First-Line Supervisors & Mid-Managers

Attendees will receive a certificate of attendance for their training file and continuing education units and a copy of the seminar's Power Point presentation as future reference material

"MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT covers a significant amount of material on the subject, as written by a bona fide expert who has been in the field and the courtroom. ...the information is valuable for any manager or administrator who has concerns for use of force incidents involving their personnel." - Security Management Magazine

Meet Your Instructor Howard Webb

Howard Webb is a nationally and internationally recognized criminal justice liability management and use of force expert, who authored the four-hundred and four page liability management and use of force treatise: MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT For Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators. Howard's textbook and his proactive liability management and use of force training program has been adopted by national and international criminal justice agencies and police academies as an effective solution to their civil litigation challenges, media relations difficulties, and Department of Justice civil rights investigations.

Furthermore, Howard is a nationally recognized expert on officer survival skills, strategies and tactics. As the director of training and the officer survival expert for POINT BLANK and P.A.C.A. (DHB Armor) soft body armor companies, he reviewed hundreds of officer survival incidents. As a product of his research, Director Webb developed over a dozen officer survival and use of force training programs for use with DHB Armor's "Hitman Suit" - a tactical training suit he designed. As a result of over twenty years of officer survival research and training, Howard authored his second book: THE 48 TENETS OF OFFICER SURVIVAL as a solution to the increasing levels of violence directed toward law enforcement officers. Written in the philosophical tradition of Sun Tsu's The Art of War, he addresses the cultural, mental, and technical aspects of street survival from a street cop's perspective.

Mr. Webb is a federal, municipal, and state court recognized procedural and technical expert witness in the areas of corrections and law enforcement. As an expert witness, he has testified over three-hundred times in defense of officers in civil trials and criminal prosecutions. In his role as a corrections and law enforcement expert, Howard has reviewed over a thousand incidents involving the use of alleged excessive force or misconduct by criminal justice officers and private citizens. Further, he is routinely sought out to consult on matters of police excessive force by criminal justice administrators and members of the news media. Mr. Webb's court recognized expert witness curriculum vitae can be reviewed at the American Council On Criminal Justice Training's website: www.accjt.org.

The following is a list of Mr. Webb's professional highlights:

- An acclaimed expert on criminal justice liability, tactics, use of force, and officer survival, who conducts training seminars and instructor development courses nationally.
- Published author on police liability management, who has written the first comprehensive treatise on proactively managing use of force incidents for officers, detectives, supervisors, middle-managers, and administrators.
- Former use of force expert for the State of Oregon and the State of Montana, who has testified in defense of criminal justice officers, over three-hundred times, in civil lawsuits and criminal prosecutions.
- Former director of the Montana Law Enforcement Academy, who created and implemented the first scenario-based police academy training curriculum.
- An original member of Macho Products' Redman Advisory Board. Board members provide suit improvement recommendations.
- Former director of training for DHB Armor Group: POINT BLANK and P.A.C.A body armor companies, who developed the "Hitman" training equipment - the first suit designed to integrate the use of Simmunition™.
- Provided use of force training to the 1996 Olympic Security Team, a 2,000 member international police force who provided security at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, GA.
- Created the national "Police Corps" program and managed the first Police Corps academy for the U.S. Department of Justice. The Police Corps was the civilian version of the military's ROTC program.
- Former Lieutenant for the Oregon Department of Public Safety Standards and Training, who managed the basic police, defensive tactics, patrol tactics, survival skills, vehicle stops, and use of force training programs.

MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT
For Criminal Justice Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators

Managing the Use of Force Incident is the first treatise written that addresses the proper management of the use of force incident by criminal justice officers and liability management for criminal justice supervisors and administrators. Rather than focus on the traditional reactive approach to liability management, the author, Howard Webb, provides an innovative, proactive, liability management strategy for winning excessive force lawsuits and preventing officer and department liability. This comprehensive four hundred page text discusses the following:

Part One: Understanding the Use of Force Incident

Chapter One: Lawsuits are Predictable, Preventable, and Winnable

Chapter Two: The Importance of Perceptions

Chapter Three: Standards Governing the Use of Force

Chapter Four: Threat Assessment

Part Two: Preparing for the Use of Force Incident

Chapter Five: Force Continuum: To Use or Not to Use that is the Question

Chapter Six: Documenting the Use of Force Incident

Part Three: Managing the Use of Force Incident

Chapter Seven: Managing the Use of Force Incident for Officers

Chapter Eight: Managing the Use of Force Incident for Detectives

Chapter Nine: Managing the Use of Force Incident for Supervisors

Chapter Ten: Managing the Use of Force Incident for Mid-Level Managers

Chapter Eleven: Managing the Use of Force Incident for Administrators

Chapter Twelve: Use of Force Training

Charles C. Thomas Publishing is proud to announce the publication of our latest liability management Book.

Hard Cover: $74.95

Soft Cover: $54.95

ebook: $54.95

"MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT covers a significant amount of material on the subject, as written by a bona fide expert who has been in the field and the courtroom. ...the information is valuable for any manager or administrator who has concerns for use of force incidents involving their personnel. -Security Management Magazine

"I've been tasked with revising our Provincial use of force instructor program ...I am using your book, MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT, as one of the foundational texts. Your book has covered the topic extremely well and I believe it will be of benefit not only to use of force instructors - but line officers, administrators, risk management personnel, and those who author policy and procedures." -Sgt. Brad Fawcett, Justice Institute of British Columbia, Canada

"MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT is loaded with fantastic, detailed and accurate information....it will be required reading to those leading and instructing in our DT Unit. I want to thank you for all the information contained in this book... it is outstanding." -Lt. Jeff Hansen, Gresham Police Department,

Managing the Use of force Incident for Criminal Justice Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators can be viewed on the American Council on Criminal Justice Training website: www.accjt.org. This comprehensive use of force treatise is available for purchase from our website: books@ccthomas.com or from amazon.com.