About the Speaker: Sergeant Bill Long has been with the Phoenix Police Department for over 25 years and has worked numerous undercover and plain clothed assignments dealing with Organized Crime Groups to include, but not limited to, Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs and Asian Criminal Enterprises. His assignments as a detective included the Gang Enforcement Unit, Drug Enforcement Bureau, Special Projects Unit, Organized Crime Bureau, and the Homeland Defense Bureau. He was assigned to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to work "Operation Black Biscuit" in which he worked in an undercover capacity to infiltrate the Hells Angels Motorcycle Gang. At the conclusion of this assignment Sergeant Long studied Vietnamese language and culture at the Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center (DLI) in Monterey, California. Sergeant Long has supervised the Career Criminal Squad, a Homicide Response Squad, and is currently assigned to lead a squad of detectives assigned to the Arizona Financial Crimes Task Force targeting money laundering along the southwest border.
