You Will Learn How To:

- Interpret verbal and non-verbal behavior to assess the credibility of a suspect's statements
- Structure the interview to help evaluate the truthfulness of the suspect
- Use behavior provoking questions in the interview process
- Persuade a suspect to tell the truth about their involvement in criminal activity
- Develop interrogation strategies and interrogation themes
- Use an alternative question to elicit the first admission of guilt
- Use tactics to handle the more defiant suspect; overcome objections and their fear of consequences

Training Manual Includes:

A comprehensive 202-page outline filled with detailed information that will serve as an excellent follow up to the training program.

Grad page Reid grads have exclusive access to the New Reid Graduate Web Page which provides additional follow up training material, audio examples of interview and interrogations, PowerPoint presentations to reinforce course material, a Q&A forum with answers provided by one of Reid's expert instructors, and much more.

Money Back Guarantee: We are confident in the exceptionally high quality of our training and offer a MONEY BACK GUARANTEE if you are not completely satisfied.

Remember: If it doesn't say "The Reid Technique" it's not John E. Reid and Associates.
