

VALOR

January 27, 2015 • Burien, Washington

About the Training

Provided by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, VALOR Training is designed to ensure that officers are knowledgeable not only about officer safety techniques but community issues, such as citizens's constitutional rights and de-escalation techniques. The overall goal is to create a safe environment for both law enforcement officers and the citizens they serve. In this training, officers will learn about professional policing in the 21st Century.
