The Kent Police Department Presents

Foundations of Blue Courage

Blue Courage: The Heart and Mind of the Guardian is an education process designed to ensure the development of a highly evolved police officer who is prepared at any moment to reflect the best of what policing demands. It draws on relevant, proven literature and research on human effectiveness, positive psychology, leadership development, and neuroscience.

Dates: April 24 and May 8

Two Sessions per day: Morning Session (8 am to Noon)
Afternoon Session (5 pm to 9 pm)

Location: WSCJTC, 19010 1st Ave. S., Burien

Cost: Free.

Registration and Cancellation Deadline: April 15, 2015
Please indicate training session when registering

Submit Application: FAX: 253.856.6800, Attn: Marla Pinelli
OR email: mpinelli@KentWA.gov

It is a process designed to:

- Address cynicism, relationship, identity, integrity, health and stress.
- Develop a culture of learning, critical thinking, open-mindedness, tolerance, and healthy curiosity.
- Develop mental toughness, allowing for the essential resilience officers and leaders must have.
- Develop a moral compass and the requisite courage to do the right thing in any circumstance.
- Instill a sense of and commitment to the purpose and nobility of policing.
