

Child Sex Trafficking: Awareness & Response

FREE Law Enforcement Training

32 hours of POST certification available for all Washington law enforcement

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children® is committed to provide training, technical assistance and resources at no cost to law enforcement personnel and others who investigate cases of crimes committed against children, specifically cases of missing children and child sexual exploitation.

Curriculum includes in-depth coverage of the following:

- Interdiction Model
- Legal Issues and Charging
- Investigating Online Advertisements
- Survivor's Perspective
- Role of Technology in CST Cases
- Interviewing a Minor Victim
- Presenting Evidence During Interviews
- Adolescent Development & Victim Vulnerabilities
- Coordinating Case Services
- Federal Resource Assistance
- Local Service Provider Functions
- And much more!!

Who:

Washington law enforcement officers & prosecutors

When:

May 19th – 21st, 2015

Where:

Washington State Criminal Justice
Training Commission
19010 1st Avenue South
Burien, WA 98148

Apply: Complete the application form at <http://www.missingkids.com/training/cstar/apply/cstar06>