

EXECUTIVE PROTECTION TRAINING

“In the business world, executive protection has little to do with cloak and dagger and much to do with corporate profit and loss.” – R.L. Oatman

CASE-The Centre for Advanced Security Education is proud to host Robert Oatman in Vancouver, BC for a 2-Day ASIS accredited Executive Protection Training on Monday June 1st-Tuesday June 2nd 2015.

This course is designed to cover the fundamental skills and procedures required to provide personal protection to executives in the corporate or government setting, members of private families, law enforcement engaged in protective services, or any prominent individuals in need of professional protection services. The two-day program is intended for the full range of student interest, from entry-level to seasoned practitioners. It will benefit those persons seeking to start a protection profession, as well as those veterans who desire an intensive refresher.

Robert Oatman is one of the preeminent providers of executive protection in the United States and since 1989 has provided Executive Protection assessments, consultation, operations and training for Fortune 500 firms around the world. He has trained with the Secret Service and supported dozens of high-level operations, including visits from presidents Nixon, Ford, Carter, Reagan and Bush. Mr. Oatman is the author of many books on Executive Protection, such as; Executive Protection; Rising to the Challenge (ASIS, 2009); and the Executive Protection chapter in the industry standard Protection of Assets Manual (ASIS International, 2004).

R.L. Oatman and Associates has become the exclusive provider of authorized training in preparations for the ASIS International Certificate in Executive Protection.
