

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT
King County
Regional AFIS Identification Program

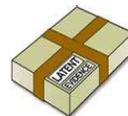

COURSE: Latent Fingerprint Processing for Officers
DATE: April 29, 2015
TIME: 1300-1500 hours
LOCATION: WSCJTC, Room E107
COST: AFIS Sponsored

INSTRUCTORS: King County AFIS Processing Unit

This course is for officers and deputies to refine their latent fingerprint collecting and lifting skills.

- Proper recognition, documentation, and development of latent print evidence detected at the crime scene.
- A general approach to fingerprint detection and enhancement.
- The types of fingerprint evidence that may be encountered.
- Lots of hands-on practical.

Bring your Fingerprint Kit in for inspection to ensure optimal performance of supplies and equipment.

TO REGISTER: Get supervisor's approval. Have supervisor e-mail us at afis@kingcounty.gov with the following information:

Name and Job Title
Agency
E-mail and Phone number

On the subject line, please write down the Course Name:

Latent Fingerprint Processing for Officers