

Domestic Violence Services of Snohomish County is hosting a dynamic two-day conference this year. Local and national speakers will present on topics related to violence against women and interpersonal violence. This year's conference is designed with a special focus on leadership in law enforcement, and preferred responses to meet community needs.

Law Enforcement and Community Leadership: Response to Interpersonal Violence

Wednesday, June 03, 2015 8:00 AM - Thursday, June 04, 2015 5:00 PM (Pacific Time)

Rosehill Community Center

304 Lincoln Ave

Mukilteo, Washington 98275

United States

425.263.8180

Phone: 42525928271014 or email us at lisa@dvs-snoco.org or visit the link:

<https://www.regonline.com/interpersonalviolence>

Description: The cost to attend is $50 and includes breakfast and lunch for both days. Law Enforcement, Advocates and Social Service Providers are encouraged to attend.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

RANDALL CARROLL, CHIEF OF POLICE, (RET)

Randall Carroll retired as Chief of Police from Bellingham Police Department in January 2008. He began serving the department in 1977, and was the Chief for eight years. Over the course of his career, Mr. Carroll worked locally, nationally and internationally on law enforcement policy development, law enforcement cultural change and education.

RICK SMITH, CHIEF OF POLICE, CITY OF MARYSVILLE

Chief Rick Smith has been a law enforcement professional over the past 26 years. His career started with the Los Angeles County Sheriff Department (six years) before he joined the Vancouver, WA, Police Department for the past eight years. Chief Smith has worked many facets within policing to include Field Training Officer, Tactical Instructor, field operations, SWAT operations, narcotics, sergeant, lieutenant, commander and acting assistant chief. His passions include the development of others so that we make a difference within our areas of influence. He has conducted leadership training sessions throughout his career that have been designed to increase personal responsibility by focusing on others. He holds a BS in Management, Communications and Leadership from Concordia University and a MA in Administrative Leadership from the University of Oklahoma.

CONFERENCE SPONSORS

City of Mukilteo

Snohomish County VAWA STOP Grant

The Scotsman Bistro

Domestic Violence Services of Snohomish County