Officer Survival Down 'n' Dirty

This course does in 8-hours what others courses attempt to do in multiple days:

- It redefines how your officers are trained in on-duty and off-duty safety practices.
- It assists in recognizing pre-incident threat indicators necessary to preventing assault.
- It provides the second-half of officer safety needed to survive the aftermath of a force response.

A fast paced, extremely relevant training course divided into three parts:

Officer Safety Down 'n' Dirty—Pre-Event.

- Principle-based approach to employing Safe Tactical Doctrine.
- Avoids commonly trained “boogey-man” theories (“If you’re not constantly alert, they’re gonna getcha!”).
- “Habituating” safe tactical doctrine and practices.

Officer Safety Down 'n' Dirty—During the Event.

- When immersed in violence, how to increase your ability to reasonably respond...and prevail.

Officer Safety Down 'n' Dirty—Post-Event.

- Surviving the “after-math” of a force response is the second-half of officer survival.
- More easily navigate the administrative, criminal, and civil minefields that are increasingly present after the suspect forces you to physically respond.

Your instructor: George T. Williams. .Director of Training for CUTTING EDGE TRAINING, L.L.C. In Bellingham, Washington. Certified Police Master Trainer.
