

The Youth Advocacy Center of Lewis County

Presents

Cory Jewell Jensen, M.S. CCSOT

Sex Offenders: What the Criminal Justice System, Schools, Churches, Youth Serving Organizations and Community Advocates Should Know

WHERE: Bethel Church at: 132 Kirkland Road, Chehalis, WA 98532

TIME: 7:30am - 8:30am      Registration Packet Pick up & Free Continental Breakfast!
 8:30am - 9:00am      Opening Remarks
 9:00am - 5:00pm      Training!

COST: FREE and lunch is included and provided on site
Bethel Church generously provides the No-Host Coffee/Espresso Cart , to be available on site all day!

Jensen, a national renowned expert and educator, has worked with sex offenders and families for 32 years. This work has led her to provide training and/or consultation with the National Center for the Prosecution of Child Abuse, the United States Navy, National Children’s Advocacy Center, The Mark McGwire Center for Children, US Marshalls Office, NYPD Special Victims Unit, faith based organizations and many more.

*** See Training details on second flyer attached*****

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Law Enforcement    • Social Workers                      • Educators                      • Clergy
- Judges                      • Probation Officers                      • Advocates                      • Medical
- Lawyers                      • Child Protective Services                      • Guardian Ad Litem                      • Counselors

Space is limited, register NOW at: <http://yaccoryjensen.eventbrite.com>

This is a password protected site, password is (Type exactly when prompted): The YAC!

Generously sponsored by: The DV Impact Panel of Lewis County

Youth Advocacy Center of Lewis County
 1911 Cooks Hill RD
 Centralia, WA 98531
 Ph: (360) 623-1990
www.yaclc.com
 YAC is a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization #45-4614768

Serving all of Lewis County through:
 * Advocacy
 * Forensic Interviewing in Child Friendly Center
 * Connecting victims and families to resources
 * Community Education on prevention & intervention