

TBK TACTICAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING
TACTICAL NARCOTICS OFFICER COURSE

Date: 22-24 July 2015
Location: Snoqualmie, WA
Cost: $350

Details: This is a three-day course designed to enhance the tactical abilities of officer(s) who are assigned to a drug enforcement unit or task-force. This course is not designed to be a "SWAT" style course, instead will concentrate on students operating in a team environment with the development of sound unit tactics that can be employed under varying situations encountered during dangerous drug investigations. Some of the topics to be covered will include:

Threat assessment / pre-operation planning
Surveillance
Search warrant service
Technical arrest of suspects from vehicles (vehicle take-downs)
Buy-bust operations
Cover team operations
Rescue of undercover personnel in trouble
Tactical entry and movement through a building
Addressing combative suspects
Installation of GPS tracking devices
Street theater
Setting up and covering a "flash"

This course will include a combination of classroom instruction and hands-on scenario based training. Some of this training will include use of force scenarios; TBK Tactical provides all training weapons and safety equipment. This course has limited seating of 20 students and is open to commissioned law enforcement officers only.
