

Center for Problem-Oriented Policing

Dear Colleague:

We are pleased to invite you to attend the 25th Annual Problem-Oriented Policing Conference to be held on October 19-21, 2015 in Portland, Oregon. The conference is sponsored by the Center for Problem-Oriented Policing and will be hosted by the Portland Police Bureau and their partners.

Each year, police officers and police leaders, and all the ranks in between, as well as crime consultants and crime researchers, come together to discuss what they've learned about trying to reduce different crime and safety problems. Attendees choose the workshops they'll attend from an agenda that will feature more than 20 different crime and safety problems. Conference sessions will be of varying sizes and use different formats, so you can choose the type of learning environment that works best for you.

In addition, leading up to the POP Conference, the Center for Problem-Oriented Policing sponsors an international competition to identify the top problem-solving projects of the year. These projects are presented at the Conference and attendees help in judging the winning project for the Herman Goldstein Award for Excellence in Problem-Oriented Policing. We encourage you to submit a project for consideration for this year's award. For additional information on the submission criteria and deadlines please click the link below.
