Nate Henyan is an authorized instructor of "Why Teens Kill: Warning Signs, Causes, Triggers and Prevention" developed by youth homicide expert Phil Chalmers. It is classroom based and includes crime scene photos, original videos, suspect interrogations, and information known only to the killer and law enforcement. This seminar is fast-paced and covers over numerous juvenile homicide cases, including school shootings, family killings, thrill killings, mall shootings, cult killings, gang shootings, and media-inspired murders.

This course will teach attendees the top ten reasons why teens kill, the six types of teen killers, the warning signs that were missed, the triggers that cause kids to finally lash out, and ways we can keep our communities and schools safe. Attendees will be taken back in time with the history of teen murder and school violence, and finally, into the minds of teen killers, and into their culture. You will see what kinds of music, movies, and video games influence kids today. This class is a must for every parent, juvenile officer, probation officer, school administrator, youth counselor, police officer, or anyone else who interacts closely with juveniles.

"Very expressive and dynamic speaker, kept our attention. Well paced and the speaker provided a lot of variety and expressiveness in his verbalizations!"	"I especially appreciate the candor. Officer Henyan was blunt and too the point. Very good."	"I found the instructor to be very helpful and knowledgeable. He addressed the questions with honest answers."

Nate Henyan served honorably for 4 years in the United States Marine Corps where he was assigned to the Security Force Battalion and as a machine gun section leader in 2nd Battalion., 7th Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division. He is a commissioned police office with over 15 years of experience in one of the largest police departments in Eastern Washington. He has served the citizens of his community as a patrol officer, detective and in his current assignment as a School Resource Officer at an alternative high school where he works with challenged youth. He has attended numerous training courses to include: FBI LEEDA leadership training, advanced Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED), Crime Scene Investigation, Homicide Investigation, and Active Shooter Response Training. Nate is an ACPI certified threat assessment specialist and is a member of Youth Homicide Expert Phil Chalmers "Sudden Impact" Speaking Team. He helped implement V.I.P.I.R. training which has since been adopted as the official active shooter response training for several school districts totaling over 20,000 students. Nate has trained over 1000 teachers, school employees, and administrators in V.I.P.I.R. principles and has advised in general safety improvements for both public and private facilities
