

Sexual Exploitation and Trafficking of Youth: Training for Service Providers & Community

Date: July 28, 2015

Time: 9am-4pm

Location: Fleet Operations Building, 3709 S. Pine Street, Tacoma WA 98409

Parking: There is limited parking located at the Tacoma Police Department Headquarters. You cannot go past the gate to park.

Cost: There is no cost to attend this training but space is limited.

The Foundation and Landscape of the Commercial Sex Trade With A Coordinated Response and Resources

- Definitions of Human Trafficking and related concepts
- Scope and prevalence
- Language and terminology
- Landscape and eight types of exploitation
- Vulnerable populations and disproportionality
- Risk factors and pathways into prostitution (runaway, homelessness, gangs, recruitment)
- Identification and red flags
- Engagement and “Asking the Question”
- Mandatory Reporting
- Psychological, physical, and developmental impacts
- Principles for Engagement
- The Exit Process: Stages of Change
- Relationship Building
- Safety planning and building safety into conversations
- Harm Reduction
- Motivational Interviewing

Please email:

kcrouch@cityoftacoma.org

to reserve your spot at the training

