In today's world, all peace officers are faced with a new level of threats and extreme personalities. In order to retain a tactical advantage, it is critical for law enforcement to understand practitioners of Islam and the more threatening entomology of Radical Islamist. This course of study is designed to give peace officers a working knowledge of Islam and more importantly, an understanding of radicalized practitioners and their mindset.

Sun Tzu said: "Know your enemy and know yourself and you will not be imperiled in a hundred battles... if you do not know your enemies nor yourself, you will be imperiled in every single battle." That is the basis for this course. We cannot fight something we do not understand.

The student will be able to recognize and develop effective ways and means of identifying, interdicting and disrupting possible actions intended to promote terrorism in their communities.
