

SLATT®

STATE AND LOCAL
ANTI-TERRORISM TRAINING PROGRAM

Specialized Workshop—Criminal Elements of the Sovereign Citizen Movement February 2, 2016 • Yakima, Washington

Who Should Attend

State, local, and tribal patrol and street-level law enforcement officers as well as court officials/officers and analytical personnel assigned to a unit with responsibilities in the area of information gathering and/or investigation of terrorism and criminal extremism will benefit from this training.

Course Description

Course topics address the basic beliefs of sovereign citizens and the threats that the criminal extremist element of sovereign citizens present to law enforcement officers. Extensive coverage will be afforded to indicators that law enforcement officers can observe and hear to better enable them to recognize sovereign citizens and determine the level of threat. Emphasis will be given to the problems that sovereign citizens present in court and other legal situations. The various financial frauds employed by sovereign citizens will also be discussed.

Sponsored by

- Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA)

Hosted by

- Yakima Police Department
- Yakima County Sheriff's Office
- United States Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Washington
- Washington State Fusion Center
- Western States Information Network® (WSIN)

Workshop Schedule

Check-In: 7:30 a.m. – 8:00 a.m.

Training: 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Registration

There is no registration fee. Travel, lodging, and per diem expenses are the responsibility of the attendee. For questions, call the Institute for Intergovernmental Research (IIR) at (800) 446-0912, extension 266 or 223. Accommodations will be made for individuals with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Contact IIR for further information.

Register now at
<http://s.iir.com/SLATT020216>

A One-Day Workshop

No Registration Fee