

Applied Leadership Principles

Performance Directed Management

Hosted by the

Yakima Police Department

207 South Third St, Yakima, WA 98901

from 8am-4pm on June 14, 2016

Of all the problems that face public safety, the shortage of practical leaders is an issue that must be addressed. Effective leadership is the cornerstone of day-to-day supervision and can be developed through experience and proper training. It is from training and experience that potential leaders are taught how to apply core competencies required of anyone thrust into a leadership situation or position. This course provides the proper training to develop an effective leader.

PERFORMANCE BENEFITS:

- How to raise the level of service in your community through improved supervision.
- How to become proficient as a supervisor and be able to resolve problems.
- Learn the difference between being a leader and being a boss.
- How to handle the "bad apple" in the group.
- Learn and understand how to implement leadership skills and techniques.
- How to better lead, motivate and communicate with fellow members.

Topics are:

- Leaders and Leadership
- Leadership vs Management
- Major Challenges Facing Leaders
- Leadership and Motivation
- How Leaders Behave
- Four Ways Leaders Get Others to Follow
- Leadership Power
