Honor, Character and
Integrity of a Noble Profession*

This is not just another ethics class.

This program will call for your personnel at every level to think more critically about the ethical choices they make and why they make them.

Attend this course and you will learn:

- How to better address the ethical decision making process
- How to promote a culture of integrity in your agency and team
- Real world examples and candid discussions about tough situations
- Practical tools to help defend your honor, character and integrity and build public trust

8 Elective Hours w/
CJTC

This program is designed for supervisors at all levels of agencies and organizations and candidly address the destructive consequences of ethical compromise and offers practical tools to address tough ethical decision making. Through candid discussions, relevant case study and informative group exercises, this course gets to the heart of ethical decision making. This course is taught by Chief (Ret.) Jon Zeliff, a retired Police Chief with 27+ years in law enforcement who is also a certified ethics instructor. Chief Zeliff's agency became the first agency in the nation to earn the esteemed "Certificate of Excellence in Integrity" award from the National Institute of Ethics. Chief Zeliff has a no-nonsense approach and keeps his classes lively, open and engaging. You are sure to take away many practical tools and a new perspective on ethical decision making and organizational culture.
