

Police Informational Bulletin

The Centralia Police Department presents:
Internal Affairs Investigations: Complaint Processing and Procedural Responsibilities

April 25 & 26, 2016
Centralia, Washington

Presenter: Thomas Ward, Assistant Chief (Ret.) Dallas Police Department

Law enforcement administration is charged with the responsibility and has the authority to maintain discipline within the police department. The community has an expectation that this responsibility will be fulfilled in a professional and responsive manner. Citizens should be provided a fair and effective avenue for redress of their legitimate grievances against members of the department. The police department also has the responsibility to protect members of their agency from false allegations.

This 12 hour course offers a global perspective to the subject of internal affairs investigations in a systematic framework designed to enhance thorough investigations. This information is relevant for agency command staff as well as the internal affairs detective or supervisor.
