In-Progress Violence Symposium- Open to all 1st Responders

In-Progress Violence includes, but is not limited to active shootings, stabbings, explosives and multiple person coordinated attacks against the general public. Goals of this training symposium is to (1) Promote and advance the science and art of police and fire coordinated response, communications and command and control to acts of in-progress violence. (2) To look at current training models being used cooperatively by Fire and Police for coordination of medical treatment for the wounded as quickly as possible, while still actively searching for a suspect, all with minimum risk to Fire with Police escort during an In-Progress Violence critical incident. Facilitated by members of the Seattle Police Department and King County Sheriff's Office

* In-Progress Violence Symposium is open to all 1st responders*

ALERRT Civilian Response to Active Shooter (CRASE) Train-the-Trainer- LE Only

The ALERRT Center at Texas State University will deliver the 4-hour, Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events (CRASE) Train-the-Trainer course for Law Enforcement Officers. CRASE Train-the-Trainer course is designed and built on the Avoid, Deny, Defend (ADD) strategy developed by ALERRT, which provides strategies, guidance and proven plan for surviving an active shooter event. This training is targeted to LEO's and Agencies that are frequently requested by schools, businesses and community members for direction and presentation on what to do if confronted with an active shooter event. Participants in the course will receive a manual and Power Point presentation suitable for use in their own presentations free of charge.
