

2017 Corrections Legal Seminar
March 30 - 31, 2017
Hosted by Lewis County Sheriff's Office

OVERVIEW

A two-day seminar reviewing many key correctional legal issues. In addition, recent Supreme Court decisions and notable Circuit Court of Appeal decisions are discussed with an emphasis on how they affect a correctional facility.

Participants will gain knowledge they can use immediately

This program provides practical knowledge that participants can apply to reduce liability in their facility and evaluate facility operations, policies, and practices for compliance with current standards. In addition to case law, the program will cover current federal statutory law that may impact facility operations; including the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, Prison Litigation Reform Act, Americans with Disabilities Act, and Prison Rape Elimination Act. Current trends in 42 USC 1983 litigation will also be addressed.

INSTRUCTORS

Elmer Dickens spent two years as a corrections officer at a maximum security penitentiary where he was assigned to Disciplinary Segregation and the Death Row Unit for one year. He has served as the General Counsel for the Washington County [Oregon] Sheriff's Office for over 15 years. Mr. Dickens also serves as the General Counsel to the Oregon State Sheriff's Association, and is the primary author of the Oregon State Sheriff's Association Jail Standards. He is also a faculty member of Americans for Effective Law Enforcement. Mr. Dickens has experience litigating in both State and Federal courts on a wide variety of law enforcement and corrections issues, and is admitted to practice in all Oregon courts, the US District Court of Oregon, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court.

Carrie Hill is an attorney and criminal justice consultant who has been actively involved in corrections for over 20 years. After leaving her position as General Counsel for the Utah Department of Corrections, Ms. Hill has focused on providing training and consulting for a variety of private & public entities on national, regional, State, & local levels. Education provides a key component in Ms. Hill's contributions to corrections, and she provides legal consultation, defense of correctional facilities, management, and staff. She also provides experienced and informed guidance in the form of legal advice and expert witness services. Ms. Hill is the former editor of Corrections Managers' Report. She currently serves as the General Counsel to the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office.
