Sexual Deviance and Related Death Investigations

Presented by North Carolina Justice Academy Instructors:

Dr. Benjamin Baughman and Deputy Russell Strickland

The primary focus of this training is to provide an introduction to sexual deviant behaviors and adult sex offenders. It is important to have an understanding of the psychological and physiological dimensions related to sexual deviance and related death investigations for those involved in determining the truth. Additional awareness of the unique nature of these types of incidents is also helpful in thoroughly and effectively assisting in investigating these cases.

Topics include:

- Overview of sexually motivated crimes
- The criminal mind and abnormal psychology
- Auto-erotic and equivocal death Investigations
- Typologies of rapists
- Serial murders and lust murders
