Women in Command is an energetic and interactive two-day course conceived, constructed and taught by successful female law enforcement executives. Leadership is a combination of both innate talents and learned skillsets. This seminar examines those traits found in proven successful leaders and accomplished agencies. Being a female leader in a male dominated profession has its own distinctive set of issues. Over the two days we will engage in lively discussions in an open forum populated by current and future women law enforcement leaders. Topics examined will include:

- Creating an Effective Organizational Climate
- Leadership Qualities Unique to Women
- Leading in a Male Dominated Profession
- Mentoring and Leading by Example
- Learning from Successful Female Leaders
- Breaking Through the Glass Ceiling
- Self Examination
