

Coaching & Counseling

Powerful Skills for Trainers, Supervisors and Managers

June 7, 2011 - 8:00am to 5:00pm

at the Best Western Park Plaza Hotel
620 South Hill Park Drive, Puyallup, WA
(Sponsored by Puyallup Police Department)

For a supervisor or trainer, knowing the root cause of behavior is essential to applying the correct intervention. Coaching and counseling reviews the causes of behavior and gives a clear method for determining motivation and gives the simple tools for addressing the issue. This course is both an information and a skills class.

Course Topics Include:

- Understanding the root cause of behavior
- Understanding the behavior is purposeful
- Dealing with "will" issues and performance
- Failure is often a choice not an ability issue
- Lack of performance is a systemic/environmental in nature
- Exact steps you must take to neutralize problem employees

Your class cost includes:

Morning coffee, door prizes, attendance certificates for your file or for CEU's

Excellent Management, Supervisor or Career Advancement Training Hours

Instructor:

Captain Randy Barnes is a highly motivated commander with 25 years of progressive experience including 8 years as division commander. Captain Barnes is a creative and innovative leader. He is a proven communicator committed to principle-centered leadership, maximizing employee investment and organizational success. Captain Barnes has served as a faculty member in the Leadership Division at the Washington Criminal Justice Training Commission since 1995.
